Dear Ben,

Please find attached the sixth and final review report, completing the agreed set of six manuscript reviews.

Once the remaining payment has been processed, I would be happy, as a courtesy, to go through your responses to my review comments and provide brief clarification where necessary.

I would distinguish this from reviewing the revised manuscripts themselves - particularly assessing whether the comments have been fully and correctly implemented -which would constitute a separate follow-up review stage. I would be very happy to discuss the scope and fee for that work if it would be useful.

Best wishes,

Dr Sara Ismail-Sutton
